

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I came home the other day and found that 22 unavailable calls had come to my house--not one of them left a message. TWENTY-TWO sales calls in eight hours!?

Please leave our laws alone and help me get peace in my home!